

JUDGE STEPHEN LOUIS MCINTOSH

Judge McIntosh is a graduate of the Moritz College of Law. He was President of the Black Law Students Association (BLSA) and received the Judge Joseph Harter Trial Advocacy Award.

Judge McIntosh has been employed with the Columbus City Attorney's Office as an assistant city prosecutor, Deputy Director of the UCC Division with Secretary of State Sherrod Brown, an associate with Crabbe, Brown, Jones, Potts and Schmidt, (now Crabbe Brown and James) and Chief Prosecutor for the City of Columbus.

He has been a Judge on the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas since 2007. He is the current Administrative Judge and Drug Court judge in the TIES program. (Treatment is Essential to Success).

Judge McIntosh is a past president of the Columbus Bar Association, member of the John Mercer Langston Bar Association and the Ohio State Bar Association where he served on the Board of Governors and currently with the Council of Delegates.

Judge McIntosh served as chair of the Supreme Court Task Force to Examine Improvements to Ohio's Grand Jury System, member Supreme Court Advisory Committees on Dispute Resolution, Chair CLE Commission, Supreme Court Advisory Committee on Interpreter Services, Board Chair of Alvis, Inc and co-chair of the Joint Task Force to Study the Administration of Ohio's Death Penalty. He currently is Board Chair of the Ohio Supreme Court Judicial College and a member of the Ohio Sentencing Commission.

He is the former chair of the OLAP board, member Ohio Sentencing Commission, the Gahanna Y Board and served as legal advisor for the Marion Franklin High School Mock Trial team for 15 years.

He has been recognized by Columbus Monthly Magazine and Who's Who Among African Americans in Central Ohio and recipient of the David White Award.

Judge McIntosh is married to Dr. Sara A. McIntosh, MD. They have three adult children. He is a Deacon at Second Baptist Church.