

Ryan Pendleton

Treasurer / Chief Financial Officer
Akron Public Schools
Akron, Ohio

Ryan Pendleton is the CFO/Treasurer of Akron Public Schools where he oversees a budget of more than $500 million in public funds. Ryan is dedicated to serving the community, in particular the students of Akron Public Schools. He is very active in state and federal issues concerning education and the potential impact on the students of Ohio.

During his career, Ryan has received multiple awards including the Chuck Gossett Legislative Award, the Regional Distinguished Service Award and the statewide Virginia Ramsey Service Award from Ohio Association of School Business Officials (OASBO). Ryan is a Leadership Akron Class 32 graduate and serves on the board of Akron Roundtable and previously on the board of the Barberton Community Foundation. Prior to working at Akron Public Schools, Ryan was the Treasurer/CFO of Barberton City Schools for nine years and worked previously as a financial advisor.

Ryan earned a BA in Business Administration from Malone College and an MBA from Cleveland State University.