

TANIA NEMER

Community Outreach Prosecutor, Assistant Prosecutor Summit County Prosecutor, Sherri Bevan Walsh

Tania Nemer grew up in a huge Lebanese family that inevitably experienced adversity and which always left her with a burning desire to be a problem solver. After all her experiences in life, Tania echoes Helen Keller's sentiments that "alone we can do so little, together we can do so much."

Tania graduated with distinction from Western Michigan University Law School. Tania served as Of Counsel for McGinty, Hilow & Spellacy Co. LPA where she managed a private practice. She transitioned to the nonprofit sector representing immigrants in federal court as a Senior Attorney at Catholic Charities, Diocese of Cleveland and later Managing Attorney at the International Institute of Akron. Tania was also a Magistrate for the Akron Municipal Court where she presided over small claims, civil, traffic and criminal matters. She is currently the Community Outreach Prosecutor for the Summit County Prosecutor, Sherri Bevan Walsh.

As a leader in the community, Tania previously served as vice-president of the West Shore Bar Association (WSBA). She was a longstanding member of the Ohio Chapter of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) and served as the Immigration Customs Enforcement liaison for the Northern District of Ohio. She has also volunteered on multiple occasions at the Family Detention Center along the southern border in Dilley, TX. Tania published a professional article, Criminal and Immigration Laws: The Lines and The Lives They Cross, in the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Journal. She earned recognition by the Ohio Bar Association as a recipient of the Nettie Cronise Lutes Award, named after the first woman licensed to practice law in Ohio.

Tania was a graduate of Walsh Jesuit HS and John Carroll University. Tania currently lives in Hudson, Ohio with her husband and their three vibrant children.
